PRINCIPAL GLANDORF'S CORNER

Dear Families,

Thank you to all who participated in the Parents, Kids and Money Matters® (blue pig) and the Parents, Teens and Money Matters® (cash cache) programs taught by Liisa Glandorf. These programs were made available through the generosity of Weldon Mersiovsky, our local Financial Representative of Thrivent Financial for Lutherans, the company that developed these two programs.

We hope that the concepts of share, save, spend are being reinforced in your family life and that you were able to use the Parent Resource Workbook that your child brought home to help you toward that end.

In the back of the Parent Resource Workbook that each of you should have received is an evaluation form.

Whether or not you were able to attend the workshop, we are asking that would you please take a moment to comment on the workshop and your child's response to it by completing the evaluation form and returning it to the school office.

If you any further financial questions, Mr. Mersiovsky's contact information is listed below:
